

WHO'S HAWK?

You will find out when you attend the Jazz Concert at the Danish Cultural Center Saturday January 23rd at 7 pm. (Social hour 6.30) Entrance $ 10.

HAWK is an artist who commands immediate attention. Like a magnet, his deep soulful voice and exciting guitar playing invariably draws audiences towards him.

Appearing on numerous radio programs, HAWK has become increasingly popular over the past few years. He has performed and recorded with many of Denmark's most respected artists and several internationally acclaimed top musicians. His warm soulful voice creating the backing track for two major TV-series. His latest CD LOOKING FOR LOVE was nominated album of the week and is in rotation on Danish national radio.

Life is full of stories

Blindness has intensified his musical expression and given him an edge when it comes to telling life's stories from a different angle. Working with his wife the American poet and lyricist Anna Lia Bright to create the song-writing team of Bright&Hawk. Writing the material for all Hawk CD's and for many other exciting projects!

Hawk recently recorded with some of the worlds top musicians! New Yorker and drummer Nathaniel Townsley who's toured with one of the 7 wonders of the world Stevie Wonder himself; Raul Rekow, Santanas percussionist for the last 32 years (playing on legendary records like Moon Flower) and Linley Marthe who beyond being Zawinuls bassist is the only bassist who can blow you away by his totally unique way of soloing.

We are proud the present HAWK at the Danish Cultural Center at a intimate concert in January. HAWK is accompanied by two established and acclaimed Danish musicians:

Poul Reiman: the most bust Danish Keyboard player. Reiman plays in the band of the TV-show "Vild med Dans" (Dancing with the stars. Danish version) He even more plays with Danish artists as: Thomas Helmig, Lars HUG, Erann DD, Chris Minh Doky to name a few. Reiman has released a CD in his own name " New York Sessions"

Henrik Engqvist: a renowned drummer who has played with different American musicians as Robben Ford, Alex Acuna, Jimmy Haslip and David Garfield. Henrik Engqvist played with late Finn Ziegler for many years, and thus visited The Danish Cultural Center in 2005 with Finn Ziegler.
